Weekly Message from Serving Elder Pam A.

Hello Everyone.

We had a great service last Sunday and a good church meeting. God was so good. Thanks to all who attended. This Sunday we continue in the theme we have been following. One more week after this and then we will be in Lent. How time flies. Keep your eyes open for the link to our Lent course individual and group studies.

3rd February sees the film afternoon at St George's. The film is cert 15.

This Sunday we will have a cake stall with donations towards the Meet and Eat Community Space.

Many thanks to all taking part in the prayer day for peace in the Middle East on Friday 2nd Feb. We will have a further opportunity to pray for Palestine on 1st March when we host World Wide Day of Prayer at 3pm in our building. This will be instead of Friday prayers.

From now on Friday prayers will begin at 12.15 on Fridays while meditation will come just before at 11.30

Some lovely days with a touch of Spring lately. How encouraging is that.

Have a blessed week. Pam

FRIDAY MEDITATION and FRIDAY PRAYERS

Friday meditation will now begin at 11.30 so you can arrive from 11.15.

Friday Prayers will now be from 12.15 and end no later than 1pm

A message from the Prayer Day in October that we can be praying about.....

Deuteronomy 30:19-20 Now choose life so that you and your children may live and that you may love the Lord your God, listen to His voice and hold fast to Him.

Praying the life of the Holy Spirit brings into all our work in the building, life into the children and youth work, life and prosperity. Speaking these words into the foundation of our building and the foundation of everything that will take place here. 'choose life'.

Help for St Paul's..

Singers needed

Once each month a small team takes a service of prayer and worship into St Paul's care home.

We need a couple of confident singers to join us. Because I was unwell this month we had to cancel at the last moment. With more confident singers that would not have happened.

Please contact me on pamramannison@gmail.com

Thanks, Pam
