Weekly Message from Serving Elder Pam A.

Hello Everyone.

Many thanks to Paul Bradford who spoke last Sunday and gave us a vivid practical demonstration of the word he brought.

This week we will be celebrating communion and the service will be followed by Church Meeting.

A special Pentecost Service will soon be planned. Pentecost Sunday is 19th May.

Our Praise Event will be upon us before we know it. Look for details in the newsletter and invite your friends. It is usually a great evening of worship and fellowship with God and each other and will be part of our prayer week.

Our prayer week begins on Monday 20th May and will offer different opportunities to pray as a whole congregation. We will be thinking about seeking first God's Kingdom and His righteousness. Details will soon be published.

Plans for the summer services are now underway and you will soon be receiving more details.

Please pray for the elders as they continue to work through the process of fundraising. This is vital for the progression of our ministry on Maylands and beyond. Fundraising is something we must all be involved in too. Please take up the task of organising a fundraiser. We need to encourage support from within and outside the church family.

We need folk who are prepared to offer one off lifts to hospital or medical appointments. If you are prepared to put your name on the list please speak to Pam.

Messages that were received at Friday Prayers on 3rd May were Matthew 5:44, Romans 15:5-6, Psalm 95:6-7. Worship, unity, forgiveness, achieving full stature in Christ.

Have a great week everyone. God bless you,
Pam
