Weekly Message from Serving Elder Pam A.

Hello Everyone.

• Many thanks to Paul Bradford, our speaker last Sunday. This week we have Pastor Paul. We will celebrate communion and take part in Remembrance. The children and youth will be packing shoeboxes in readiness for our Shoobox blessing on 17th. We are the collection point for shoeboxes in the area again this year. There will be a special, short but very important church meeting after the service.

• Many thanks to those who responded to an invitation to them to try out a new fundraising idea last week. We enjoyed some delicious puddings and they were so generous in their donations so that over £200 was raised towards church repairs. We remember that God has instructed us to do the little things and He will respond by doing the big things. We need both.

• Only a few weeks to go now before we have our Wreath Making afternoon on the last Saturday in November... 30th. Please book in advance via the office or on a Sunday if you can so that they will know how much resource to provide and how many treats to provide for refreshments. There will also be a craft stall with funds going towards church finances. Bring your friends and relatives for a fun afternoon and go away with a festive Christmas decoration.

• We need carol singers at 4pm on December 5th in the Reception area. We have been asked by Hightown to sing carols at their Christmas and information afternoon in our premises. Please let Pam know if you are joining in. Thanks to the two people who have already replied.

• Our Christmas meal will be held on 8th December after the service. Keep your eyes and ears open for more information.

Have a lovely week.
